Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Edor K. Streyle was born on August 7, 1910, at Menno, South Dakota, to Jacob and Christina Streyle; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Edor moved to California to seek work in the potato and cotton fields during the Depression, entered military service in 1941, served in the South Pacific, and was honorably discharged in the spring of 1944; and,

Whereas, Edor married Martha Guthmiller on June 18, 1944, and to this union two daughters were born, Mildred and JoAnn; and,

Whereas, Edor and Martha made their home on the Streyle homestead located 4 miles north of Menno where they farmed until retirement in March 1976, after which they built and moved into their new home in Menno; and,

Whereas, Edor served on numerous church committees and the hospital board throughout his life; and,

Whereas, Edor will observe his 95th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 7, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join all his many friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.
